The Supplier shall give the University reasonable advance notice testing the Goods and one or more representatives of the University shall be entitled to attend. The University shall have the right, at its option and at its own cost and expense, to perform or engage a third party to perform the tests in respect of the Goods.
- 8.3. Without prejudice to the University’s other rights and remedies under this Agreement, the University shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods when the University has had reasonable time (which shall be no less than ten (10) Business Days) to inspect the Goods following notification by the Supplier of the Completion of Installation (or following a latent defect becoming apparent, if applicable) and the University has not exercised in writing any of its rights or remedies under Clause 9.2 (for breaches by the Supplier under clause 9.1).

 - 9.2.1.4. right to refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods which the Supplier attempts to make;

- 9.2.1.5. where the University has paid in advance for the Goods, right to require such sums to be refunded by the Supplier; and/or
- 9.2.1.6. right to recover from the Supplier any costs and expenses reasonably and foreseeably incurred by the University in procuring replacement goods (including any ancillary services thereto) at short notice which are substantially similar in type, functionality, quality, quantity and specification to the Goods.

This will include (without limitation):
 - (i) the execution by the University as Data Exporter and by the Supplier as Data Importer of a DTA (in the form approved by the University) and the incorporation of such DTA into this Agreement; or
 - (ii) in the case of a Sub-processor acting as Data Importer (without detriment to the provisions of Paragraph 5) the Sub-processor:
 - a. at the University's option enters into a data processing agreement either direct with the University on such terms as may be required by the University, or with the Supplier on data processing terms which are equivalent to those agreed between the University and the Supplier (save that such Sub-processor shall have no right to transfer the University Data to any other third party or otherwise transfer the University Data outside of the recipient country except for transfers back to the University); and

- 4.4 The Supplier agrees that any liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and other losses incurred by the University as a result of a breach of any DTA by a Data Importer (Data Export Loss) will be recoverable by the University from the Supplier as if such Data Export Loss had been caused by the Supplier's own acts or omissions.

5. Sub-processors

- 5.1 The Supplier may only authorise a third party (Sub-processor) to Process the Personal Data if:

 - (c) the Supplier maintains control over all of the Personal Data it entrusts to the Sub-processor; and
 - (d) the Sub-processor's contract terminates automatically on termination of this Agreement for any reason.

- 5.3 On the University's written request, the Supplier will audit a Sub-processor's compliance with its obligations regarding the Personal Data and provide the University with the audit results. Where the University concludes reasonably that the Sub-processor is in material default of its obligations regarding the University Data, the University may in writing instruct the Supplier to instruct the Sub-processor to remedy such deficiencies.

6. Remedies

- 6.1 The Supplier's failure to comply with the terms of this Schedule is a material breach of the Agreement. In such event, the University may terminate the Agreement immediately on written notice to the Supplier without further liability to or obligation of the University.

- 6.2 Subject to Clause 27.3 of the Agreement, the Supplier agrees to indemnify, keep indemnified and defend at its own expense the University against all costs, claims, damages or expenses incurred by the University due to any failure by the Supplier or its employees, subcontractors or agents to comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement or the Data Protection Legislation.

SECTION I: Service Levels and Performance Management

1 Assessment of the Service Levels

- 1.1 The Service Levels which the Parties have agreed shall be used to measure the performance of the Services by the Supplier are contained in Appendix 2, Part 4.
- 1.2 Each of NCC and the Supplier shall, once every three months on following the Commencement Date ("Period") (and independently of each other) carry out an audit to assess the performance by the Supplier against each Service Level. Each Service Level shall be scored out of 3, on the following basis:
 - (a) score of 3 - meets contractual standard, no further action required
 - (b) score of 2 - meets contractual standard, further work required
 - (c) score of 1 - below contractual standard, requires improvement / action plan.
- 1.3 The score achieved for each Service Level shall be multiplied by the weighting specified for that Service Level, to give an 'outcome' for that Service Level. The outcomes for each Service Level will be added together, to give a total Service Level score achieved by the Supplier in the relevant Period. That aggregated Service Level score will be expressed as a percentage of the maximum Service Level score which could have been achieved in the relevant Period.
- 1.4 Not more than [10 days] after the end of each Period, representatives of the Supplier and NCC shall meet to:
 - (a) discuss the performance of the Supplier in the preceding Period, and to prepare a combined Service Level score. That combined Service Level score (Aggregated Service Level Percentage) will be calculated as the average of the percentages achieved by the Supplier in the previous Period, as specified in each of the Supplier's audit and NCC's audit;
 - (b) consider the reasons for the scores achieved by the Supplier, and to discuss any areas for improvement on poor performance, or consolidation of good performance, by the Supplier;
 - (c) identify any persistent failures against the Service Levels, and to discuss proposals by the Supplier to remedy those failures in the following Period.
- 1.5 In carrying out the audit described above, NCC and the Supplier shall both act in good faith to give a fair appraisal of the performance by the Supplier against each Service Level.
- 1.6 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 below, the parties agree that the Service Level audit prepared in respect of the Period following the Commencement Date during which Services are provided to NCC shall be for information only, to assist the Supplier in establishing and improving the provision of the Services. As such, the provisions relating to Service Credits and Critical Failure shall only apply in relation to the second and subsequent Periods.

2 Calculation of Service Credits

2.1 The Service Credit payable in respect of any Period shall be calculated as follows:

- (a) if, in any Period, the Aggregate Service Level Percentage is greater than or equal to [90%], no Service Credits shall apply in respect of that Period;
- (b) if, in any Period, the Aggregate Service Level Percentage is less than [90%] but greater than or equal to [85%], the Service Credit payable in respect of that Period shall be an amount equal to [XX% of the fees for the Period / INSERT AMOUNT]; and
- (c) if, in any Period, the Aggregate Service Level Percentage is less than [85%], the Service Credit payable in respect of that Period shall be an amount equal to [XX% of the fees for the Period / INSERT AMOUNT].

3 Critical Service Level Failure

- 3.1 The parties agree that, notwithstanding the general obligation of the Supplier to perform the Services in accordance with the Service Levels, the Service Levels set out at Appendix 2, Part 4 point(s) [INSERT SERVICE LEVEL NUMBERS] are of particular importance to the University. The parties agree that shortfalls against those Service Levels which constitute Critical Service Level Failures will give the University the right to terminate this agreement in accordance with the provisions of Clause 22.1.3.
- 3.2 Critical Service Level Failure shall mean an Aggregated Service Level Percentage, calculated by reference only to Appendix 2, Part 4 point(s) [INSERT SERVICE LEVEL NUMBERS], of [50%] or less in respect of any Period.
